Pageant Rules

This year's theme is "Lollipops and Lemonade" (Sunday Best in your favorite pastel colors)! Attire should be cute, stylish and show the contestant's personality...age appropriate and fit properly. Please no flip-flop or slide-in style shoes - sandals with straps are fine. This is a "natural" pageant!!! Excessive sequins, glitter, frills, etc. will result in a points deduction. The expense of the attire is not considered when judging. This rule is in place to make the contest more accessible to all children.

Very minimal makeup (i.e., Lip gloss and light blush) for ages 3 years and above. We are looking for natural beauty and age appropriate makeup and attire. No artificial hair, wigs, falls, etc.

Contestants (ages 2 years and above) will be asked an on-stage, simple and age appropriate question. Points will not be given or deducted based on the contestant's answer. This is only to allow sufficient time for the judges to see the contestant's personality, give them exposure to answering an on-stage question and gain confidence in speaking.

Judges

Judges are individuals from the community selected by the Fair Committee/Pageant Director. Judges have experience in stage presentation, fashion, makeup and/or hair design, pageants and/or performance. Contestants are not informed of the selection of judges. A judge may be substituted or replaced if a judge or the director finds a conflict in relationship or the judge is unable to remain unbiased and fair. Information regarding the judges is held confidential by the pageant directors until the day of the pageant.

The Baby Miss/Mister, Tiny Tot Miss/Mister, Petite Miss/Mister will have a King and Queen and runners-up depending on the number of contestants in the category. The remaining divisions will have a Queen and runners-up also depending on the number of contestants in the category. Kings and Queens will be awarded a trophy and crown.
